When the dispatch to the Matin was filed on the 19th the situation at Monastir was reported unchanged. Serb advanced posts were no longer in contact with the Bulgarians, who were believed to have detached troops to reinforce the army attacking the French. The Serbians then occupied the village of Brod, north of Krushevo, although the town had changed hands several times, being occupied several hours the day before by Bulgarian irregulars.

Skepticism Is Voiced by British Paper Over the Promises of Greece

LONDON, November 26.-The Pall Mall Gazette recalling the assurances given by Eleutherios Venizeolos, the Grecian ex-premier, and the way they were nullified by King Constantine's actions, regards the present Greek assurances with skepticism, and declares that the promises of Premier Skoulou dis and his colleagues, whatever shape they may assume, are not to be taken too seriously.

"What has been secured apparently by the gentle pinch of four days' arrest of Creek shipping," the newspaper says, "is the assurance that Greece will not quite be as treacherous as words which certain of her ministers might have implied. That the Greek army is to remain mobilized will prevent any sure sense of safety on the part of the (entente) allies."

FRENCH SHIP SHELLED, BUT ESCAPES U-BOAT

PARIS, November 26 .- The ministry of marine, in a communication made public last night, says that the French steamer Tafna was shelled by a sub-marine in the western Mediterranean, but that the captain of the steamer, with remarkable quickness of decision steered his vessel into the teeth of the gale and that the submarine, unable to keep up the speed against the head seas, relinquished the chase after fir-

CLAIMS OF MR. M'ADOO ARE DEEMED TOO ROSY

Republican Members of Congress Pick Flaws in Democratic Financial Plans.

The statement of Secretary McAdoc n regard to the present assets of the government and the revenues estimated for the future is entirely too rosy in the opinion of republican members of Congress in Washington today. Senator Smoot of Utah, a close stu dent of the fiscal affairs of the government, said that he intended to analyze the McAdoo statement carefully, and then would issue a statement regarding it.

"The democrats are counting as assets money in the Treasury which has already been appropriated for specific purposes," he said. "They do not take any account of the obligations of the government in connection with this money. I might give you $10 to pay a doctor's bill, and you would have $10 in your pocket, but it would not be an asset of yours, and if you wanted to spend $10 you would have to get another ten. But the democrats seem to go on the principle that the $10 destined for the doctor and already expended are assets."

"Janopoi, one of the points where the Germans had reached the Dvina and whence they had made attempts to cross, has been captured by the Russians. Russ Pressure Continues.

"The Russians continue to press on various points to prevent the realization."

Sees Possible Hornet's Nest.

Senator Smoot gave it as his opinion that if the democrats attempt to place a tax upon gasoline and to extend the ncome tax so as to cover incomes as low as $2,000, as suggested by Secretary McAdoo, they would find themselves in a hornet's nest.

Another republican senator expressed the same opinion as Senator Smoot in regard to the McAdoo statement. He added that the democrats would have to face, sooner or later, the question of levying a tax upon the manufacture of war munitions in this country.

"The democrats do not want to face this question," this senator continued. But such a tax probably would be popular with the people. I believe that the democratic administration was forced States packing house products con-

Dead Money-A Talk to Storekeepers

Every article you have on your shelves which does not sell represents dead money. It is not earning anything.

It is taking up room. It is growing less in value as it gets older.

It does not sell because people do not want it. It may be a good article, but they do not know it or believe in it. People DO KNOW about the goods being advertised in

If these are good goods they vill want them. It pays the retailer to cooperate with newspaper advertised products, to show them in the windows, and to push them.
